Deerbrook Home Owners Association Newsletter October 2007

DHOA Fall Yard Sale to be held Saturday October 27 from 9 to 2.

Several people asked if we could have one, and so we voted in the October 6 meeting to do just that. No need to reply if you plan to participate; DHOA will put up signs at the entrances to the neighborhood. If you live down a dead-end street, you may want to put up a little sign or arrow pointing from Deerbrook Way the morning of the yard sale.

DHOA Luminaria to be lighted at dusk on Sunday December 16th.

Pick up supplies on Saturday the 15th or the afternoon of the 16th at Elton Thomas's house. Rain date is the 23rd. Mark your calendar!

Oktoberfest & Meeting Report.

DHOA's fall meeting and barbeque was held Saturday October 6th in the Rustlewood cul de sac. It was a beautiful day: the Spongebob Bounce was jumping, then the kids were read a story by a scarecrow (Angela Dyer*) before they tried their hands at constructing their own. We hope to see some of these masterpieces on front porches along the streets before Halloween!

After reports from the officers and committees, participants in the brief meeting decided when to have the yard sale and luminary lightings, and Elton volunteered to be in charge of distribution of luminary supplies. Then we got back to the party. Thanks, Mr. President!

The brats were good, the company was great, and there were some excellent desserts—not to mention beers—to sample. There were a couple of mishaps: fire ants attacked a couple of people who were unfortunate enough to be standing on their mound, and one young lady got a black eye when a fellow bouncer accidentally met her during a landing. No serious casualties, but it seems there were a couple of good stories.

Deerbrook Garden Club's Yard of the Month Picks:

Recent honors went to the Heeters at 4033 Deerbrook Way. Thanks for doing such a great job on your yard! We can only hope to look that good.

Newsletter Announcements: If you have an announcement, event, or feedback that you want in Deer Tracks, contact DHOA Secretary Patricia Yeargin at yeargin2000@yahoo.com, or you can call her at 770-923-2823.

Crime watch: We've had no criminal activity reported to the Board in the past few months. If you see anything that looks suspicious but does not merit an emergency 911 call, use the Gwinnett Police's non-emergency number, 770-513-5100 and let them check it out. Then call any Board member and we'll pool our information and publish a summary in the newsletter. Or you can email us at mail@deerbrookhoa.org.

Help Wanted: Resident to Represent Timber Glen on the DHOA Board.

Last year, Tanya Zamora did the honors. It is important for both neighborhoods to continue to have someone work in this capacity. Please consider joining us: You do not have to be elected! The only commitment is a monthly meeting, usually Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m., and they are always close by. Call Elton or Debbie Jacobson if you are interested. The next DHOA Board meeting is set up for Monday November 5 at 7:30 p.m. at Patricia's house. Stop in and check it out!
